

SYNTHESIS AND BEING

FROM KANT TO HEGEL

1. Prolegomena to Any Future Possible Reading of Kant and Hegel

PART I: Kant

2. Apperception and Object. On a Central Line of Argument in the B-Deduction

3. Intuition, Objectivity, and Objective Validity

4. Synthesis, Schmimagination and Regress

5. The Metaphysical Deduction Revisited

a. Logic and Content

b. The Identity Thesis and Judgement at A79/B104–5, lectio novāculā

PART II: Hegel

6. Hegel's Original Insight

7. The Difference Between the Pippinian and Houlgatian Interpretations of Hegel

8. Sheer Being and Thought

9. On Henrich on Anfang und Methode der Logik

10. Commentary on the Being Logic, Sein and Dasein